COMMENTS & FEEDBACK

Families also shared the following comments about their experience at CAP Tulsa:

"When I put my children into CAP, it was a really hard decision for me. I was a single mom and very protective, but I had heard about it through my job and word of mouth, but two weeks after being in the program - I definitely felt like, WOW, where has this been all my life!" - Sand Springs Family

"Because of the program we now have a better future ahead of us for the whole family. My son has the best education and care." - Briarglen Family

"The program has taught me different strategies for calming my son down when he is upset and using those things at home. Recreating what they do at school at home, reading his emotions, and learning how to respond to them." - Reed Family

"The staff have worked with my family during some extraordinary circumstances and have always been respectful, kind, and supportive." - Skelly Family

COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

We also heard families' thoughts on opportunities for improvement across the agency:

- We heard the need for added aftercare at some schools, and have made slight changes to our model to allow some additional flexibility in the coming year. As staffing and slot capacity allows, we hope to better meet the demand for aftercare at all schools.
- Reviewing processes and procedures as it pertains to paperwork and program transitions was highlighted as an opportunity for improvement. As an agency committed to continuous improvement, we are always reviewing and seeking efficiencies to further streamline our processes to better support families and staff.
- Finally, we received suggestions for helping to familiarize families with staff at schools beyond teaching teams. We are considering options for displaying names, titles, and mini-bios for family-facing positions, similar to what families are used to seeing outside the classroom, for staff who work at the front of the building or in spaces throughout the schools.

Thank you again to the families who participated in the 2023-2024 family surveys! Your input is essential in helping us make improvements for the new school year.
